

NEW INDUSTRIAL COURSE

CE/ENVE 3995 SPECIAL TOPICS: SITE VISIT TO CEE INDUSTRIES

CE/ENVE 3995

is a new course offering Civil & Environmental Engineering undergrad students the opportunity to explore real-world engineering through a series of guided site visits.

Search for CE/ENVE 3995
on StudentAdmin to enroll!

EXPERIENCE ENGINEERING IN THE REAL WORLD!

COURSE INFORMATION:

- Network with engineers and explore career opportunities in the field
- Open to all Civil and Environmental Engineering undergraduates
- See how course concepts apply to active construction projects
- Earn credit through site participation and a final reflection

PLANNED SITE TRIPS:

- UConn Depot Campus – CTI
- CTDOT Headquarters, Newington – CTDOT
- Gant Science Complex – Whiting-Turner
- South Campus Construction Site – O&G Industries
- East Side Coastal Resiliency Project – NYC DDC & The Moles

UConn
COLLEGE OF ENGINEERING
CONNECTICUT TRANSPORTATION
INSTITUTE (CTI)

The MOLES

UConn | COLLEGE OF ENGINEERING

SCHOOL OF CIVIL AND ENVIRONMENTAL ENGINEERING